Aravossis, C. A. Brebbia, 2010 The current emphasis on sustainable development is a consequence of the general awareness of the need to solve numerous environmental problems resulting from our modern society This book addresses the topic of investment assessment and environmental economics in an integrated way Project Appraisal and Valuation of the Environment P. Abelson, 1996-06-12 The book is a pioneering attempt to see exactly what difference economic valuation of environmental effects would have made to six actual on going development projects if it had been done at the time of appraisal It combines theoretical rigour with applied economic skills presented with robust common sense James Winpenny Overseas Development Institute This book is a practical and readable guide to valuing the environment and the implications for public investment and policy useful for students as well as professional economists policy makers engineers environmental and social planners It describes how the environment can be valued and how these valuation concepts can be applied to investment decisions The book provides first a general introduction to the key issues and concepts considering the nature and magnitude of environmental problems the cost benefit method of evaluation and detailed methods for valuing the environment It then analyses in detail six case studies based on actual or proposed major investment projects by the UK Overseas Development Administration or the World Bank These include water quality in China the supply of electricity in Bangladesh slum improvements in India mass transit in Nigeria forest conservation in Kenya and soil quality in Bolivia Thus the book is expected to be of special interest to professionals and students in developing countries although much of the material has general application in developed as well as in developing countries      Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1979      Environmental Economics and Policy Thomas H. Tietenberg,2001 This book is the premier introductory environmental economics text for non majors Key chapters are extracted from the author s longer book Environmental and Natural Resource Economics the best selling text in the field The result is a compact text that includes a concise introduction to economic theory as well as a variety of policy based chapters Each policy chapter discusses relevant environmental and political background and then applied the critical economic concepts to real world examples By including both basic theory and in depth issues based application the book is ideal for a wide range of courses in environmental and natural resource economics      Environmental economics Professor P. Nijkamp,2013-12-19 The river Rhine it is well known Doth wash your city of Cologne Butteil me Nymphs what power divine Shall henceforth wash the river Rhine The above strophe composed by Samuel Taylor Coleridge early last century shows that interest in environmental problems in this case the self cleansing property of water is not just something new but was also present in the past The reader may wonder after this poetic contribution which is still very relevant if there is any need to compile a book which handles environmental problems in a much less prosaic i e scientific way It is my firm belief that present environmental problems because of both s i z e and in t e n s i t y i t deserve our profound attention This concern will have to be shown not only by those directly involved viz the man in the street but also by the authorities as well as by scientists In view also of the social relevance of the environmental question science may not be impartial but must make a modest attempt to analyse explain and solve the present environmental question systematically      An Introductory Guide to EC Competition Law and Practice Valentine Korah,1994      Energy Research Abstracts ,1977 Semiannual with semiannual and annual indexes References to all scientific and technical literature coming from DOE its laboratories energy centers and contractors Includes all works deriving from DOE other related government sponsored information and foreign nonnuclear information Arranged under 39 categories e g Biomedical sciences basic studies Biomedical sciences applied studies Health and safety and Fusion energy Entry gives bibliographical information and abstract Corporate author subject report number indexes      Journal of Economic Literature ,2006-06      American Book Publishing Record ,2007      Project Appraisal ,1997      Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1996-02      Revista de Análisis Económico ,1990
