Environmental Protection and Coastal Zone Management in Asia and the Pacific Ichirō Katō, 1985 Environmental Protection and Coastal Zone Management in Asia and the Pacific Ichirō Katō, 1985 Emerging Policy Initiatives and Activities in Coastal Zone Management and Non-living Resources Assessment in Asia and the Pacific United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 1998 The lack of an integrated approach in coastal zone management is still a key issues It has led to coastal habitats being increasingly degraded through pollution and natural resources being overexploited with growing conflicts between competing resources users This publication addresses the issues related to national emerging policy initiatives and efforts towards integrated coastal zone management and the status and prospects of subregional cooperation in coastal management and non living resources assessment in Asia and the Pacific and presents a regional action program Publisher s description Water Management and Environmental Protection in Asia and the Pacific Ichirō Katō, 1983 Coastal Zone Management Imperative for Maritime Developing Nations B.U. Haq, Gunnar Kullenberg, Jan H. Stel, 2013-03-09 Anthropogenic transformation of the coastal zone continues at a steady pace especially in the developing maritime countries where coastal resources are often crucial to national economies However exploitation of these resources is often indiscriminate ill planned or carried out without adequate scientific knowledge This leads to rapid resource depletion and often irreversible environmental degradation The 1992 Rio de Janeiro UN Conference on Environment and Development recognized the expediency of an integrated and sustainable use of all coastal resources functions and services grounded on sound scientific data The present volume is based on the 1994 international workshop Integrated Coastal Zone Management and brings together contributions by leading specialists both on basic concepts and on applications of coastal management The work is divided into six parts dealing with the conceptual framework of ICZM regional and global aspects of coastal management environmental assessment in ICZM capacity building and technology transfer monitoring and environmental analysis and case studies and status of ICZM plans The book also incorporates an interactive ICZM planning module COSMO which can be of use in designing a management plan for a coast Attention is also given to long term environmental effects of present day actions It is hoped that COSMO will prove an additional learning tool for ICZM practitioners and enhance the value of the book This work is intended to give a broad coverage of conceptual and technical aspects of ICZM and will be of use to operational executives as well as students of ICZM environmental economists policy makers and senior managers in the international development agencies and governmental and non governmental organizations It can be recommended as a textbook and as a reference work Coastal Planning and Management Robert Kay, Jaqueline Alder, 2005-06-09 The first comprehensive tool kit for coastal planners and those aiming to achieve effective coastal management worldwide Coastal Planning and Management provides a link between planning and management tools and thus includes all stages in the process from development through evaluation to implementation Drawing on examples of successful coastal planning and management from around the world the authors provide clear and practical guidelines for the people who make daily decisions about the world's coastlines Coastal Planning and Management is an invaluable resource for professionals in environmental and planning consultancies international organizations and governmental departments as well as for academics and researchers in the local and international fields of geography marine and environmental science marine and coastal engineering and marine policy and planning
