Enhancing Humanity The Philosophical Foundations Of Humanistic Education Philosophy And Education:

Enhancing Humanity N. Aloni, 2002-12-31 In Jean Paul Sartre's Nausea Roquentin feels bound to listen to the sentimental ramblings about humanism and humanity by the Self-Taught Man. Is it my fault, muses Roquentin, in all he tells me I recognize the lack of the genuine article? Is it my fault if as he speaks I see all the humanists I have known rise up? I have known so many of them. And then he lists the radical humanist, the so-called left humanist and Communist Humanist, the Catholic humanist, all claiming a passion for their fellow men. But there are others, a swarm of others, the humanist philosopher who bends over his brothers like a wise older brother with a sense of his responsibility, the humanist who loves men as they are, the humanist who loves men as they ought to be, the one who wants to save them with their consent and the one who will save them in spite of themselves. Quite naturally the skeptical Roquentin ends by saying how they all hate each other as individuals, not as men. Fully aware of the misuse and false comfort in the use of the term, Professor Aloni proceeds to restore meaning to the word as well as appropriate its educational significance. There is a freshness in this book, a restoration of a lost clarity, a regaining of authentic commitment.

Gallery of Scholars Israel Scheffler, 2007-11-03 This volume offers a vivid personal account of eminent philosophers and educators with whom the author has interacted over the half-century of his academic career at Harvard. It recalls the personalities and ideas of landmark thinkers of the recent past, thus counteracting the prevalent amnesia of research universities. It reflects on the educational impact of the scholars' styles of teaching as well as the varied approaches embodied in their academic practice. In addition, it affords insights into the human workings of universities and the varieties of scholarship in the continuing quest of shared understanding. The book includes fourteen photographs of scholars portrayed in the book. The book offers a rare glimpse from the inside of the most significant intellectual milieu of the Western world and the insights of one of Harvard philosophy's most distinguished members. As such, it will be of great interest to readers both from within and outside the academy. Harvey Siegel, Department of Philosophy, University of Miami, Coral Gables, FL, USA. Professor Scheffler writes wonderfully about an impressive array of famous scholars. His portraits are vivid, detailed, exact, often quite amusing, and just right in terms of length and range. David Hansen, Teachers College, Columbia University, NY, USA. This is the work of a gifted writer, an important contribution to the fields of philosophy and philosophy of education on both sides of the Atlantic. The strongest aspects of the work are the weaving together of personalities and ideas in a quasi-historical narrative, together with a look back at what the life of the mind meant in one professional's work. Steve Tozer, UIC College of Education, Chicago, IL, USA. The Palgrave International Handbook of Alternative Education Helen E. Lees, Nel Noddings, 2016-08-31 This state-of-the-art comprehensive Handbook fully explores the field of alternative education on an international scale. Alternatives to mainstream schooling and education are becoming increasingly recognised as pertinent and urgent for better understanding what really works in successfully educating children and adults today, especially in light of the increased performance-driven and managerially organised economic modelling of education that dominates For too long we have wondered what exactly education done otherwise might look like and here we meet individual examples as well as seeing what alternative education is when a collection becomes greater than the sum of parts The Handbook profiles numerous empirical examples from around the world of education being done in innovative and excitingly democratic and autonomous ways from Forest Schools and Home Education through to new technologies neuroscience and the importance of solitude The book also sets out important theoretical perspectives to inform us why seeing education through an alternative lens is useful as well as urgently needed Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of Education Education Policy Sociology and Philosophy as well as educational practitioners

Internationalisation of Educational Administration and Leadership Curriculum Eugenie A. Samier,Eman A. Elkaleh,Waheed Hammad,2021-08-23 In light of a new wave of cultural mobility how must educational leaders respond to the challenges of internationalising their curricula and accommodating diversity This timely project bridges a gap in the field of educational administration by showcasing the development of curricular internationalisation across several countries

Beyond Bystanders Nimrod Aloni,Lori Weintrob,2017-04-17 Beyond Bystanders calls for a shift in the professional self image of teachers from agents of socialization to active advocates of human flourishing social justice and world betterment The editors propose that it is irresponsible for teachers to posit themselves as bystanders and to conceive of globalization as something happening to them Their role as educators in all disciplines must be to establish educational leadership that would empower students to critically evaluate developing global realities mass migrations socioeconomic inequalities global warming and the dehumanizing effects of submission to social media and consumerism and achieve the overarching goals of humanization and facilitation of the fulfilling life A shared commitment to humanist ethics pedagogical activism and social engagement at Kibbutzim College of Education Tel Aviv and Wagner College New York sparked this collaboration The authors of the book include educational thinkers such as Nel Noddings Michael Apple David Hansen Pasi Sahlberg and Wiel Veugelers as well as scholars and practitioners from six different countries and diverse professional and cultural backgrounds An essential part of our educational enterprise must involve promoting intercultural opportunities confronting cultural ills and ensuring that civic engagement is more attuned to political realities Educators in all disciplines can reframe their teaching and schools to be more cooperative and civic minded and challenge views of marginalized immigrant undocumented and refugee communities as strangers Education is not only about teaching people to read and to write It is about teaching human rights and cultural diversity nourishing peace and fostering inclusive and sustainable development I wish to commend Kibbutzim College of Education and Wagner College for joining forces to compile this volume to inspire readers in crafting new models of intellectual and intercultural understanding Irina Bokova Director General of UNESCO from the Foreword American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Philosophy and the American School Van Cleve
