Evolution Challenges Integrating Research And Practice In Teaching And Learning About Evolution:

Evolution Challenges Karl S. Rosengren, 2012-04-25 This book goes beyond the science versus religion dispute to ask why evolution is so often rejected as a legitimate scientific fact focusing on a wide range of cognitive socio cultural and motivational factors that make concepts such as evolution difficult to grasp

Understanding Evolution Kostas Kampourakis, 2020-09-24 Why is evolution so difficult to understand Uncover the common misconceptions and core concepts in this concise and accessible book

Evolution Education Around the Globe Hasan Deniz, Lisa A. Borgerding, 2018-06-21 This edited book provides a global view on evolution education It describes the state of evolution education in different countries that are representative of geographical regions around the globe such as Eastern Europe Western Europe North Africa South Africa North America South America Middle East Far East South East Asia Australia and New Zealand Studies in evolution education literature can be divided into three main categories a understanding the interrelationships among cognitive affective epistemological and religious factors that are related to peoples views about evolution b designing implementing evaluating evolution education curriculum that reflects contemporary evolution understanding and c reducing antievolutionary attitudes This volume systematically summarizes the evolution education literature across these three categories for each country or geographical region The individual chapters thus include common elements that facilitate a cross cultural meta analysis Written for a primarily academic audience this book provides a much needed common background for future evolution education research across the globe

Perspectives on Science and Culture Kris Rutten, Stefaan Blancke, Ronald Soetaert, 2018-02-15 Edited by Kris Rutten Stefaan Blancke and Ronald Soetaert Perspectives on Science and Culture explores the intersection between scientific understanding and cultural representation from an interdisciplinary perspective Contributors to the volume analyze representations of science and scientific discourse from the perspectives of rhetorical criticism comparative cultural studies narratology educational studies discourse analysis naturalized epistemology and the cognitive sciences The main objective of the volume is to explore how particular cognitive predispositions and cultural representations both shape and distort the public debate about scientific controversies the teaching and learning of science and the development of science itself The theoretical background of the articles in the volume integrates C P Snow s concept of the two cultures science and the humanities and Jerome Bruner s confrontation between narrative and logico scientific modes of thinking i e the cognitive and the evolutionary approaches to human cognition

Precursor Models for Teaching and Learning Science During Early Childhood Jean-Marie Boilevin, Alice Delserieys, Konstantinos Ravanis, 2022-08-27 This edited volume provides an in depth exploration of a theoretical framework supporting Early Childhood Science Education research and teaching best practices Particularly by presenting the concept of the Precursor Model from an epistemological psychological and didactical point of view at Early Childhood Science Education The book examines and discusses the nature of Precursor Models and their use for early science teaching and learning It scrutinizes different aspects of the construction of such models applied in early childhood education settings and contexts Several empirical studies are presented within diverse scientific domains as well as in international educational contexts By providing a variety of examples of precursor models it makes this book a great companion for teachers aiming to teach children to understand and reason about topics such as floating and sinking shadow formation water state changes air clouds and rain electricity inheritance and selection as well as variation within populations Finally this volume supports the development of science education from an early age by using the original framework of a precursor model to mediate teaching and learning science at school during early childhood A Companion to Biological
